

COFFRET CD événement, annonce. THE SEIJI OZAWA EDITION (238 cd DECCA CLASSICS)

Decca nous régale. A l'été 2026, paraît l'édition Seiji Ozawa « THE SEIJI OZAWA EDITION », un coffret impressionnant regroupant au total l'héritage discographique du chef japonais, hélas décédé le 6 février 2024 (LIRE notre dépêche mort de Seiji Ozawa :

<https://www.classiquenews.com/mort-du-chef-d-orchestre-seiji-ozawa-mardi-6-fevrier-2024-a-tokyo/>)

... soit 238 CD qui réunit les enregistrements du chef d'orchestre disciple de Karajan, révélé par le Concours de Besançon 1959. Ozawa a été l'une des figures marquantes de la vie musicale internationale, reliant les cultures musicales d'Europe, des États-Unis et du Japon pendant plusieurs décennies.

Cette édition rassemble ses enregistrements édités sous étiquette Decca, Philips, Deutsche Grammophon, Sony, Warner, Telarc, ECM, Hyperion et JVC, ainsi que des enregistrements live inédits de TOKYO FM. Il documente les partenariats artistiques d'Ozawa avec des orchestres tels que l'Orchestre symphonique de

Boston, le Berliner Philharmoniker, le Wiener Philharmoniker, l'Orchestre national de France, l'Orchestre Saito Kinen (qu'il a fondé avec le Festival du même nom en 1992), l'Orchestre de chambre Mito.

Les enregistrements sont présentés sur des CD UHQ de haute qualité (lisibles sur n'importe quel lecteur CD standard) avec revêtement Green Label et dans les pochettes originales en étuis à cartes. Quatre livrets anglais/japonais totalisant 600 pages comprennent de nouvelles notes de l'ancien producteur de Tokyo FM, Hiroo Tojo et des contributions d'Haruki Murakami, John Williams, Martha Argerich, Itzhak Perlman et James Taylor. De nombreux enregistrements sont disponibles sur CD pour la première fois à l'international. Inclus également (ajoutant à la richesse éditorial du présent coffret événement) : des photos rares et inédites de la succession d'Ozawa et des archives d'Universal. Parution annoncée le 21 août 2026.

The Seiji Ozawa Edition presents an extraordinary 238-CD box set that brings together, for the first time, the complete recorded legacy of this great conductor in one collection. Ozawa was one of the defining figures of international musical life, bridging the musical cultures of Europe, the United States and Japan over several decades.

The edition brings together recordings from Decca, Philips, Deutsche Grammophon, Sony, Warner, Telarc, ECM, Hyperion and JVC, as well as previously unreleased live recordings from TOKYO FM. It documents Ozawa's artistic partnerships with orchestras including the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Berliner Philharmoniker, Wiener Philharmoniker, Orchestre National de France, Saito Kinen Orchestra and Mito Chamber Orchestra.

The recordings are presented on ultra-high-quality UHQ-CDs (playable on any standard CD player) with Green Label Coating and in original jackets in card sleeves. Four English/Japanese booklets totalling 600 pages include new liner notes by former Tokyo FM producer Hiroo Tojo and contributions from Haruki Murakami, John Williams, Martha Argerich, Itzhak Perlman and James Taylor. Many recordings are available on CD for the first time internationally. Also included are rare and never-before-seen photos from Ozawa's estate and the Universal archives.
